This is very helpful. Thank you Captain and everyone on your team for your assistance and support. Brian will be reaching out to schedule a meeting and forwarding our issues under separate cover.

Subject: Afternoon

Brian,

Things became very busy yesterday so I'm just getting to this email introduction.

I would like to introduce, by way of this email, my sergeants in charge of Central Divisions Footbeat Unit, Sgt. Richter and Sgt. Cornwell. Both were personally selected by me to run this unit. I suggest all three of you meet when possible.

After some further thought, you should also be introduced to Sgt. Hamer. Beginning Monday, he is my sergeant in charge of what once was referred to as the Eastside Detail. This unit has been reformed and begins Monday morning. Sgt. Hamer is another one of my handpicked supervisor, another good person to know.

All three are CC'd on this email. When an issue beyond the BIDs capabilities arises, I'd like you to have several resources to contact. Collectively, we should be able to formulate some type of response.

Obviously, Sgt. Flanagan, SLO Reedy and SLO Lewis would normally be your primary contact. However, it is not a bad idea to CC others in emails or even call directly when identifying issues so everyone can be aware of the situation and immediately begin some problem solving.

I'll wait for the list of specific trouble locations from you before any changes in our deployment.

Have a good weekend,

Captain Howard Leslie
Commanding Officer, Central Area
Los Angeles Police Department
